

Angel Reyes & Associates Files Wrongful Death Lawsuit in Fatal Burnet County Crash

Dallas, Texas – Angel Reyes & Associates has filed a wrongful death lawsuit on behalf of the family of Desiree Cervantes, 23, one of five women who tragically lost their lives in a collision in Burnet County on July 25, 2025.

The suit, filed in Williamson County, seeks accountability for the devastating crash that claimed the lives of five close friends: Desiree Cervantes, 23; Ruby Cruz, 23; Thalia Salinas, 23; Jacqueline Velazco, 22; and Brianna Valadez, 22.

“Angel Reyes & Associates is committed to securing justice” said Angel Reyes, founding partner of the Firm. “We stand with the families of all five women and will work tirelessly to honor their memories through the pursuit of justice.”

Ryan Browne, partner at Angel Reyes & Associates, added: “Our Firm will ensure that the voices of Desiree and her family are heard and that every legal avenue is pursued on their behalf. This lawsuit is about seeking justice and accountability for a tragedy that has forever changed these families as well as their friends and communities.”

Spencer Browne, partner at Angel Reyes & Associates, said: “This case represents an unimaginable loss. We seek to provide strength through the legal process and ensure the pursuit of justice is carried out with dignity and respect.”

The Firm is working in coordination with legal teams representing the families of the four other deceased ladies to ensure a comprehensive effort.
