“Our company first recommended trying out for the role of Ae-joon because they thought I would match well with the character, and as someone who always wanted to try acting, I took it as a great opportunity. While studying the role of Ae-joon, I got to understand more about how our fans would feel and realized once again how precious their love is. I was also able to adjust to the filming set quickly, thanks to working with an amazing staff and actors. I worked diligently on this drama with much excitement, so I hope you also enjoy the drama, My Bias Is Showing!” – Kevin, member of OMEGA X

My Bias Is Showing! was directed by Baek Min Hee, known for her previous work on web dramas PENG and Our D-Day. Co-produced by IPQ and MODT Studio, this new drama comes after the international success of BL dramas A Shoulder to Cry On and Jazz for Two, which also featured OMEGA X members as main actors and their participation in OSTs. My Bias Is Showing! is comprised of ten 20-minute episodes, and can be watched globally on iQIYI and GagaOOLala in the Americas, Europe, Southeast Asia, and more.
