The Women Behind the Brand

LeahJessica Jewelry was founded in 2015 by Leah Singer and Jessica Abu, two San Diego women who started on very different career paths.

Leah came from a creative background, while Jessica had years of experience in sales. After raising families and discovering a shared love for personalized fine jewelry, they decided to build something new together.

Their very first collection—hand-cut name earrings—was a hit among family and friends and sparked what would become a growing brand rooted in personal storytelling.

Nearly a decade later, Leah and Jessica continue to design jewelry that celebrates milestones, memories, and meaning for customers in the community they love.
