You don't need money to build wealth. You need strategy, confidence, and the right approach to real estate.”

David Webb, The No Money Millionaire

David Webb, widely known as The No Money Millionaire, announces the release of his groundbreaking book, The No Money Millionaire: Build Wealth

Through Real Estate Without Using a Dime of Your Own Money.

The book provides a step-by-step blueprint for aspiring investors to build wealth and create generational change without relying on personal savings, traditional financing, or high net worth. Webb, a transformational leader and real estate investor, has built a multi-state real estate portfolio valued in the millions using creative strategies such as seller financing, private capital, partnerships, and the BRRRR method. His book distills years of lived experience, offering practical guidance for readers who want to break financial cycles and achieve financial freedom, even if they believe they are starting from zero.

“Most people think you need money to make money. That's a lie that keeps people trapped,” said Webb. “I've built my wealth without using my own capital, and this book is proof that you can too. No money is never an excuse.”

A Blueprint for Everyday Investors

The book is written for everyday people, not Wall Street professionals. With a direct, no-nonsense style, Webb reveals:

*How to Structure No-Money Deals: From motivated sellers to investor partnerships, Webb provides scripts, templates, and negotiation tactics.

*Raising Private Capital: How to attract and build trust with investors even if you've never raised a dollar before.

*Executing the BRRRR Strategy: Buy, Rehab, Rent, Refinance, Repeat explained step by step with real examples.

*Scaling Without Limits: Systems and strategies to grow from a single property into a scalable portfolio.

Each chapter ends with motivational insights, reminding readers that mindset, not money, is the ultimate driver of success.

More Than a Book—A Movement

The No Money Millionaire is not just about real estate deals; it is about transformation. Webb's journey, from overcoming personal adversity to creating a multi-million-dollar portfolio, resonates with anyone who feels stuck, under-resourced, or overlooked by traditional financial systems.

Webb's rising influence is also being recognized on screen. He will be featured on Legacy Makers TV, part of the Inside Success Network, where he shares the same principles of wealth creation without capital and the power of ownership. This national exposure highlights the growing momentum of the No Money Method movement.

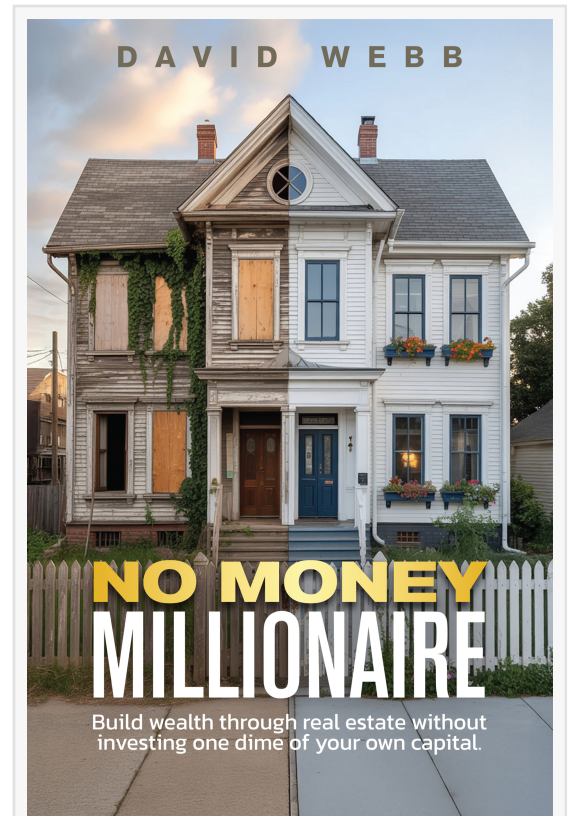

"I know what it's like to struggle with rent, to feel like the system is rigged against you," Webb said. "This book is about showing people they already have the power to change their lives. The keys are in their own pocket, they just need to know how to use them."
