The company confirmed that the responsibilities formerly overseen by the CFO will be redistributed across other internal functions. As part of a wider streamlining of the organisation, IDENTEC SOLUTIONS has reorganised its global Finance Team, rendering the standalone CFO position redundant. No further details regarding the new structure have been disclosed at this time.

"IDENTEC SOLUTIONS remains firmly committed to pursuing its strategic priorities and financial targets," said CEO Dr. Urban Siller. "Our reorganisation reflects our focus on agility, efficiency, and a long-term vision for growth."
