Asset-Backed Securities Market Size

OR, UNITED STATES, September 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The global asset-backed securities (ABS) market has experienced steady growth in recent years and is poised for further expansion in the coming decade. In 2024, the market size was valued at USD 6,886.77 billion and is projected to grow from USD 7,264.30 billion in 2025 to an impressive USD 11,743.57 billion by 2034, reflecting a robust compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.48% during the forecast period (2025–2034). The market's growth is driven by increasing demand for structured finance solutions, rising consumer credit activity, and growing institutional investments in securitized products.

Key Drivers of Market Growth

Rising Consumer Credit and Loan Origination- The surge in auto loans, credit card receivables, and student loans has fueled the issuance of ABS products. With rising consumer borrowing trends, financial institutions are increasingly turning to securitization to manage risk and improve liquidity.

Institutional Investor Demand- Institutional investors, including pension funds, insurance companies, and asset managers, are actively seeking asset-backed securities due to their attractive risk-return profile and diversification benefits, thereby driving steady demand in the market.

Regulatory Support and Market Stability- Reforms in structured finance markets, improved risk assessment frameworks, and increased transparency in securitization processes have boosted investor confidence, supporting sustainable market growth.

Technological Advancements in Financial Markets- The adoption of fintech, AI-powered analytics, and blockchain in securitization processes has streamlined risk assessment, credit scoring, and transaction monitoring, enhancing efficiency and transparency in ABS markets.

Diversification of Underlying Assets- The expansion of ABS products beyond traditional auto loans and credit card receivables to include assets like healthcare receivables, renewable energy projects, and digital infrastructure financing has broadened the market scope significantly.
