Kevin earned his bachelor's degree in Theater from Boston College and honed his screenwriting skills at New York University. After a decade in Hollywood, he returned to his literary roots and began crafting the expansive Lady of Shadow series, which will span eleven books.

Kevin's creative journey led him to script screenplays for the Hollywood industry and landed acting roles in popular productions such as ABC's All My Children, Nickelodeon's The Adventures of Pete and Pete, Fiona Flanagan's MTV music video Living in a Boy's World, and the 2006 horror film Candy Strippers.

Beyond writing, Kevin is a passionate collector of pop culture memorabilia. His extensive collection includes comic books, vintage toys, and swords inspired by iconic films, television shows, and mythology. Over time, his collection has grown to include statues and figurines, culminating in a dedicated mini-museum room in his home.

Kevin lives in Greenville, South Carolina with his wife and two daughters, where they've proudly called the city home for the past fifteen years.
