"This program is about investing in my team first—creating an environment where employees feel supported, motivated and capable of achieving great things," said Monroe.

Monroe brings a unique perspective to mentorship, shaped by her service in Marine Corps intelligence, her experience as CEO of multiple companies and her work as an author and public figure. She is the author of "Race to Save America," which shares her vision for leadership and national renewal. Her upcoming book, "Wake Up Ready," draws on her personal journey and offers practical tools to help readers succeed in business and in life.

Beyond her role at VETCOMM US, Monroe is a passionate advocate for veterans and a frequent voice on national media, where she shares her insights on leadership, national security and civic engagement. Through her mentorship efforts, advocacy and upcoming publications, she

As a leader, I've learned that true success isn't measured by the businesses you build, but by the people you empower along the way."
