Common Challenges in AP/AR Management

Even though accounts payable and receivable are vital, many businesses still face issues like:

1. Invoices getting delayed, messing with cash flow
2. Mistakes from manual data entry causing payment errors
3. Trouble syncing accounts payable systems with ERP and accounting software
4. Limited real-time updates on what's owed and what's coming in
5. High costs from managing AP/AR internally

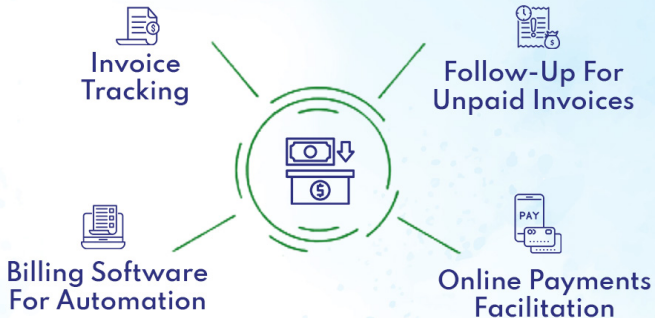

These problems often lead to longer payment times, strained vendor relationships, and less efficient finances overall.
