Timeless Elegance Meets Sustainable Modern Luxury

Mira Villas designed by Bentley Home embodies a property style that transcends time, blending the established estate aesthetics with modern distinction. This development pioneers a single style approach, incorporating luxurious architecture and high-quality materials that will remain relevant for generations. The symbol of quintessential British performance combined with exquisite design depicts a poetic and powerful residential experience.

Energy-efficient architectural features such as high ceilings and roof extensions shield the villas from direct sunlight, leading to significantly reduced energy consumption. The façades, made with natural Portuguese limestone, not only add a touch of sophistication but also allow the houses to 'breathe'. Renewable energy will be generated through the use of solar panels, recycled steel, and low-volatile organic compound paints used in construction.

The interiors within the community reaffirm Bentley Home's core values by adding organic and modern shapes to well-defined lines, and iconic craftsmanship. Quality and functionality are at the core of the design – always underscored by a commitment to sustainability, nature, and green materials.

Bentley Home's debut interior design development in the Middle East marks a significant milestone for the brand, as it continues to expand its global presence as the definition of modern luxury. This branded community not only embodies Bentley Home's timeless elegance but also represents its unwavering commitment to providing exceptional living experiences.
