"Ever since announcing my Speechless '25 tour, I've had so many people asking if we were gonna bring the tour to my hometown of Nashville...where the Speechless album was born 25 years ago," said Chapman. "So, I'm very excited to announce that on March 23rd, 2026, I'm bringing Speechless to the legendary Ryman Auditorium! Plus I'll be joined by my band, LaVie Quartet and several surprise guests/friends on stage to help me celebrate it! Can't wait!"

Since its release in 1999, "Speechless" has become a defining record in Chapman's career, featuring classics like "Dive," "Be Still and Know," "Fingerprints of God," and the title track "Speechless"—songs that continue to inspire audiences worldwide. This anniversary event promises to be a powerful evening of music, memories, and celebration.
