

Retail Live! Redefines Retail Real Estate Networking

SARASOTA, FL, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Retail Live!, one of the industry's fastest-growing networking platforms, is reinventing how retailers, landlords, and brokers connect to make real deals happen.

Founded by industry veteran Stacey Mooney, Retail Live! has evolved from a regional event into a nationally recognized hub for purposeful dealmaking. Unlike traditional conferences, its format puts retailers at the center—cutting out the noise and driving results in a single high-energy day.

There's a real urgency right now to make meaningful progress—not just trade business cards,” said Mooney. “Our goal is simple: create the space, focus on quality, and let the deals happen.”

2025 Event Lineup

- Austin – September 4
- Nashville – September 30
- Indianapolis – November 19

With 2025 events set for Austin (today, September 4), Nashville (September 30), and Indianapolis (November 19),

Retail Live! offers a high-energy environment designed to spark real conversations and real results. Looking ahead to 2026, Retail Live! will expand into more markets and attract next-generation concepts—digitally native brands going brick-and-mortar, experiential retailers, and health and wellness tenants.

Why It Works

Attendees report making more connections and moving more deals forward in one day at Retail Live! than in months of outreach. The event tackles today's challenges head-on—rising construction costs, creative leasing, evolving tenant mixes—while creating authentic, people-first relationships that fuel long-term growth. Mooney's vision is clear: to make Retail Live! the go-to platform for retail real estate dealmaking across the U.S., with events that are personal, purposeful, and increasingly accessible. "Our long-term plan includes continued geographic expansion as well as digital tools that extend the value of our events year-round," she explained. "Even in a tech-heavy world, the human element matters more than ever."
