

Uplers Unlocks 3M+ Talent Network to Help U.S. Startups Scale Faster

Uplers connects startups with over 3 million professionals from India and delivers talent in just 48 hours to help leading brands.

CA, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Uplers, an end-to-end global hiring platform, has announced the major enhancement of its private talent network to over 3 million professionals, making it one of the largest talent networks in the world. This new capability enables the fastest-growing startups to connect with top Indian talent at a faster, more flexible, and precise pace.

As the hiring market becomes increasingly competitive, this capability will help them overcome one of the biggest hiring challenges of finding and onboarding top tech talent in this highly competitive market. Amidst widespread talent shortage, skyrocketing salaries, and hiring delays that dominate the innovation of scaling startups, Uplers is stepping in with an efficient solution.

Shachi, Digital Marketing Manager at Uplers, brings 12+ years of expertise in on-page, off-page, and content marketing, delivering excellence in strategy, client success, and timely results.”
Lead with AI, move with speed

Uplers allows the start-ups to access the top 3.5% of Indian tech talent and bypass recruitment hurdles to accelerate growth. Hiring managers can instantly employ a team from the extensive network of software developers, AI engineers, data scientists, cybersecurity experts, and other emerging technologies. This helps in turning lengthy hiring cycles into a smooth hiring process within 48 hours.

“It’s not just about hiring fast, it’s about hiring right. Startups today are looking for long-term contributors who align with their culture and growth goals. That’s the gap we aim to bridge”, says Jaymin Bhuptani, Co-Founder and CEO of Uplers.

Why US start-ups are turning to Uplers
