impractical, and practical furniture is rarely attractive. To bridge this gap, the brand set out to design versatile, elegant furniture that enhances smart living through both form and function. Each piece is crafted to blend practicality with style, transforming any space into a functional and aesthetically pleasing living area.

LivingHome Defining Products

LivingHome's vision is exemplified by two of its most distinctive designs:

Three-Seater Power Zero-wall Recliner Sofa with Drop-Down Table Tray

This sofa redefines shared comfort with its innovative zero-wall reclining function, allowing users to stretch out fully even in compact spaces. Its drop-down center tray functions as a built-in hub, featuring wireless charging, cup holders, USB-A and Type-C ports, and hidden storage pockets—ensuring everything needed for relaxation is always within reach.

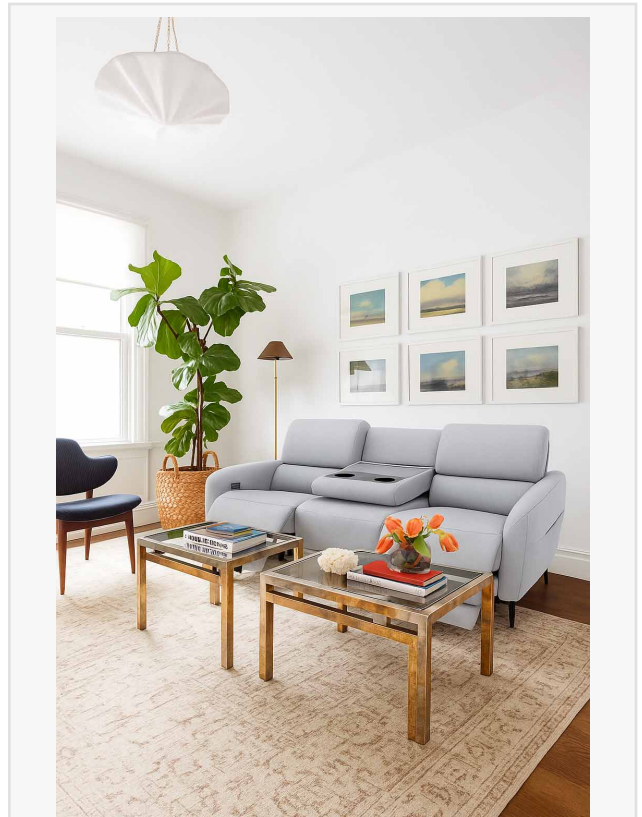

Swansing Zero Gravity Single-Seater Power Recliner Chair

Inspired by NASA's neutral body posture, this chair offers a personal retreat through zero-gravity positioning that relieves spinal pressure and improves circulation. With dual-motor adjustability, a 360° rotating base, and integrated charging ports, it adapts seamlessly to work, leisure, or rest. Its sculpted silhouette, inspired by the elegance of a swan, combines ergonomic precision with graceful design.

Accessible, Sustainable, and User-Friendly

Both products are shipped in modular packaging for easier delivery, require no tools for assembly, and are offered at accessible pricing. These design choices reinforce LivingHome's mission: to make practical, stylish, and functional furniture available to every modern home.
