At that time, the Caribbean Airlines recognized unnecessary issues and tried to improve them with a new change in ticket name change policy.

The 2025 update to the name change policy has created a pleasant atmosphere among passengers. This detailed guide is all about the new policies for name change for Caribbean Airlines' valuable passengers.

Why the Need for an Update Name Change Policy?

In the past, flyers had to go through time-consuming steps and also had to pay additional charges, and sometimes had to face denied boarding. The Caribbean airline analyzes everything, and that's why they decided to make an update on the name change policy.

Under this update, the Caribbean airline changes the following perspectives:

Minor Spelling Corrections

Now, passengers can correct minor spelling up to 3 words. In this, travellers can correct or change inverted letters, missing characters, and misplaced spaces. If done quickly, it can reduce the risk of trouble at last time. It also includes the adjustment of prefixes and suffixes.

Legal Name Changes

If the flyer has legally changed their name due to marriage, divorce, adoption, or court orders, then it is important to change the name on the ticket also. That's why Caribbean airlines allow passengers to change their legal name by submitting some legal proof.

Flexible Request Channels

The Caribbean Airlines has become the name requested more flexible. Now passengers can make changes to their name via:

- Official Caribbean Website
- The Mobile App
- Customer Support Helplines
- Authorizing ticketing offices

Applicable Fees

Now the Caribbean airlines update their fee criteria. The charges for a name change will be dependent on the types of corrections. However, Normal name corrections are free of cost if passengers take quick action on them. Additionally, charges for a name change are usually lower.

Non-Transferable Tickets

In the whole update, the type of ticket is always the same, that is, non-transferable. The name correction on the passenger ticket will be applicable for the same passengers; the whole ticket will not be applicable for transfer to any other passenger.
