

iPostal1 Announces Strategic Partnership with Staples Canada, Expanding Digital Mailbox Services Throughout Canada

Individuals & businesses in Canada have access to iPostal1's digital mailbox services by choosing a Staples Canada store as a mailing address on iPostal1.com

MONTEBELLO, NY, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iPostal1, the leading digital mailbox service, has launched a partnership with Staples Canada, making iPostal1's unique digital mailbox solutions available in all Staples store locations across Canada. The launch is the first step in iPostal1's international growth initiative after the great success achieved in building out a nationwide digital mailbox provider network in the U.S.

Individuals and businesses across Canada will now have easy access to iPostal1's innovative digital mailbox services by choosing a Staples Canada store as its mailing address at iPostal1.com. Customers can sign up for a digital mailbox to remotely manage mail and packages from their smartphone using the iPostal1 app – including viewing, forwarding and scanning mail, scheduling pickups, and discarding or shredding unwanted mail.

With our launch across Canada, Canadian residents and businesses can now benefit from the convenience of receiving mail and packages using our digital mailbox platform.”

Jeff Milgram, CEO, iPostal1

Secure delivery of mail and packages to a Staples Canada location will prevent mail and package theft. Plus, owners of home-based businesses looking to protect their privacy now have over 300 Canadian street addresses to choose from to use as their business address.

"Our partnership with Staples Canada marks our initial foray into other countries. With our launch across Canada, Canadian residents and businesses can now benefit from the convenience of receiving mail and packages using our digital mailbox platform," said Jeff Milgram, CEO, iPostal1. "This partnership is a significant step in extending the success that iPostal1 has seen in upgrading mail and package delivery across the U.S., into the international marketplace."

Individuals and businesses across Canada now have easy access to manage their mail and packages remotely using the iPostal1 app.

As Canada's go-to shipping destination, Staples Canada is committed to bringing value and convenience to its customers. By introducing digital mailbox solutions from iPostal1 into its services offering, Staples is enhancing that commitment to make everyday shipping and receiving more seamless.

"We are always looking for ways to deliver more value to our customers, especially businesses that need flexibility and efficiency to thrive," said Brian McDougall, Interim CEO and Chief Retail Officer, Staples Canada. "Our partnership with iPostal1 enables us to offer secure, convenient digital mailbox services that support our customers no matter where they live or work. It's another step in our commitment to making it easy, and helping Canadians stay productive as a true partner in their success."

A Virtual Mailing Address starts at $14.99 for personal use and $19.99 for business use. To learn more and sign up, visit <https://shop.staplescopyandprint.ca/pages/ipostal1>.
