

American IRA Returns to FinCon to Share Expertise on Self-Directed IRAs

American IRA is excited to announce our return to FinCon 2025

SIOUX FALLS, SD, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American IRA, a national leader in Self-Directed IRA administration, is proud to announce its return to FinCon, the premier financial media and influencer conference. This year, Kyle Moody, Business Development Manager, and Colden Raisher, Digital Content & Brand Engagement Specialist, will represent American IRA at the annual gathering.

FinCon brings together financial educators, advisors, brands, and content creators who are shaping the conversation around money and investing. American IRA's presence highlights the company's commitment to educating investors about the benefits of Self-Directed IRAs, empowering individuals to take greater control of their retirement strategies by investing in alternative assets such as real estate, private lending, and more.

At American IRA, we have a mission to help investors understand how to take charge of their retirement future through education and accessible solutions. Attendees will have the opportunity to connect with Kyle and Colden to learn more about American IRA's low-fee structure, robust educational hub, and personalized service model that sets it apart from traditional custodians.

The graphic features the American IRA logo at the top left, which consists of a red circle with a white stylized 'A' and a blue circle with a white stylized 'I'. To the right of the logo is the text "AMERICAN IRA" in large blue letters, with "Self-Directed IRAs and 401ks" in smaller blue letters below it. Below the logo and text are two portrait photos of the team members. On the left is Kyle Moody, a man with short brown hair, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and dark tie. Above his photo is the text "Kyle Moody" in red, with "Business Development" in smaller red text below it. On the right is Colden Raisher, a man with short brown hair, wearing a teal patterned shirt. Above his photo is the text "Colden Raisher" in red, with "Marketing" in smaller red text below it. At the bottom of the graphic is a dark blue banner with the text "meet the team" in red, "AT FINCON 2025" in white and yellow, and a small "JOIN US!" logo in a circle. The background of the graphic has a white and red dotted pattern on the left and a blue and white geometric pattern on the right.
