

One Pass, Every Season: Funfull Brings Year-Round Play to Boise Families

BOISE, ID, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Summer might be the season most associated with adventure, but people in Boise now have a way to keep the good times flowing no matter what the calendar says. Funfull's FunPass proves that fun doesn't have an expiration date by unlocking experiences across the Treasure Valley that keep laughter, bonding, and play alive every season.

From thrilling Nerf Wars and skating to catching the latest blockbuster at Regal Cinemas, Funfull members have a world of entertainment at their fingertips. Add in bowling, trampoline parks, play centers, and arcades — and it's clear that you don't need to wait for warm weather to connect and create memories with your loved ones.

A Pass for Every Season

I've always believed that strong family bonds are made over shared activities and adventures. After all, the essence of family bonding is the time you spend together.”

Vishal Patel, CEO & Founder, Funfull

While many families scramble for summer activities, Funfull's vision goes far beyond one season. Fall afternoons are perfect for a visit to the Lowe Family Farmstead in Kuna — open for the season starting September 13th — where families can pick pumpkins, enjoy hayrides, wander through flower fields, and get lost in Idaho's Original Corn Maze.

Winter weekends? They don't have to be spent indoors, glued to screens, either. Families can head out to Idaho IceWorld for skating and hot chocolate afterward. And when spring showers hit, kids can still keep the energy flowing with fun at Fast Lane Indoor Kart Racing or a playful outing at Chuck E. Cheese.

The FunPass makes it easy to enjoy all these fun activities and many more under one simple membership.

Taking the Hassle Out of Family Fun

“Our mission is to take the hassle out of planning family fun,” said Vishal Patel, CEO & Founder of Funfull. “With one pass, parents don’t have to search for new ideas every week. Instead, they can enjoy consistent, affordable, and exciting experiences that bring the whole family together all year.”

Parents need to balance work, school, sports, and family commitments. By offering a single pass with flexible access, Funfull helps ease the pressure. Families can make spontaneous decisions, knowing that their FunPass is ready to cover whatever activity they choose.

More Than Entertainment — A Way to Connect

Funfull isn’t just about keeping kids entertained. The platform is designed to strengthen bonds between parents and children and between friends who want to share memorable experiences. In a world where schedules are packed and screen time often takes priority, a FunPass opens the door to something more meaningful: shared laughter, teamwork, and time together.

“Kids grow fast, and moments fly by,” Vishal Patel added. “The FunPass gives families more opportunities to capture those memories in real life, instead of letting another weekend pass by without connection.”

Supporting Families Through Every Season

As the school year ramps up and holidays crowd the calendar, many families find themselves with less time and more stress. Funfull addresses that challenge head-on by creating a year-round way to have fun. Parents don’t need to search endlessly for seasonal activities or spend heavily on one-off events. Instead, they can rely on their FunPass membership to bring variety, value, and joy whenever they’re ready to play.

And Boise is only the beginning. With growing partnerships nationwide, Funfull is helping families everywhere realize that the joy of play doesn’t stop when summer ends — it simply changes shape with the seasons.

A Community of Joy

Funfull also emphasizes accessibility and inclusivity. From energetic kids looking for active play, parents seeking low-stress outings, and families who want to try something new every weekend, a FunPass makes it possible to enjoy local entertainment in ways that fit any schedule or interest.

In Boise, this means a unique mix of options that reflect the city's diverse family culture. From indoor adventures to outdoor fun, Funfull ensures that there's always something to do together, no matter the weather.
