The definitive measure of who is shaping fitness worldwide.

Setting the Standard for Global Fitness Leadership

The Global Fitness 100 is not a popularity contest—it is the definitive benchmark for who is truly shaping fitness worldwide.”

Richard Miller, CEO of Gym Revival Group, Inc

In today's $100B global fitness economy, true leadership is rare. Few executives achieve both measurable results and lasting influence. The Global Fitness 100 establishes the first authoritative benchmark of impact, innovation, and reach across the global fitness ecosystem, touching millions worldwide.

“The Global Fitness 100 is not a popularity contest—it is the definitive benchmark for who is truly shaping fitness worldwide,” said Richard Miller, CEO of Gym Revival Group,

Inc. “These leaders are redefining the industry with bold vision, operational mastery, and measurable impact.”

Defining Excellence Across Four Pillars

Honorees were selected through a rigorous evaluation framework based on four pillars:

- Impact — Market influence, operational reach, and business outcomes
- Innovation — Breakthrough products, services, and experiences
- Leadership — Strategic vision, organizational culture, and talent development
- Contribution — Advancing health, wellness access, and community engagement

Icons and Innovators Among the Honorees

Among the inaugural honorees are global icons and industry leaders, including:

- Arnold Schwarzenegger (Arnold Sports Festival)
- Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson (Seven Bucks Companies)
- Ben Francis (Gymshark)
- Alex Hormozi (Acquisition.com)
- Chris Bumstead (RAW Nutrition)
- Jay Blahnik (Apple Fitness)

Nominations for 2026 Now Open

The 2026 Global Fitness 100 nominations are officially open. Visionaries, executives, and innovators are invited to submit nominations for peers driving measurable impact and shaping the future of global fitness.
