

The Virtual Real Estate Team Launches New Website to Help Investors Discover Hands-Off, Cash-Flowing Properties

The Virtual Real Estate Team launches new site to help investors find turnkey, cash-flowing properties with zero management hassle.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Virtual Real Estate Team \(VRET\), a trusted leader in turnkey real estate investment solutions, proudly announces the launch of its newly redesigned website: www.virtualrealestateteam.com. With a modern, user-friendly interface and a wealth of educational content, the site is strategically built to support busy professionals and middle-aged investors looking for hands-off, cash-flowing real estate opportunities.

Led by seasoned real estate broker Joe Pryor, The Virtual Real Estate Team offers a high-touch, personalized approach to real estate investment — with a focus on simplicity, transparency, and long-term success.

The number one concern we hear from investors is that they want reliable cash flow without the stress of managing properties”

“The number one concern we hear from investors is that they want reliable cash flow without the stress of managing properties,” said Joe Pryor, Owner of The Virtual Real Estate Team. “Our mission is to take the complexity out of investing and offer a streamlined solution that delivers real value without consuming your time.”

A Website Built for the Passive-Income Investor

The new website serves as a central hub for investors who want to build wealth through real estate without becoming landlords. Designed with simplicity and education in mind, the site features:

Comprehensive educational content to help investors understand the turnkey model

Step-by-step guidance on how to get started with VRET

Direct access to book a consultation through a 30-minute strategy call

For individuals and couples who are planning for retirement, seeking to diversify their portfolios, or simply want their money to work harder without daily involvement, VRET provides a professional, fully-managed investment experience from start to finish.

Why Turnkey Real Estate?

Turnkey real estate investing has gained popularity among middle-aged investors and professionals who want to generate passive income but lack the time, experience, or desire to deal with property management. VRET specializes in sourcing, analyzing, and delivering investment-ready properties that are professionally managed — allowing clients to enjoy consistent cash flow with minimal effort.

"Not everyone wants to flip houses or become a landlord," Pryor added. "Our clients want predictability, professionalism, and peace of mind. That's what our new site communicates clearly — that we are here to serve as a trusted partner in their long-term investment journey."

Over 30 Years of Real Estate Expertise

Joe Pryor brings over three decades of real estate experience to the table. As a long-time broker and investor himself, he has witnessed the evolution of the real estate market through multiple economic cycles. His deep understanding of market dynamics, combined with a passion for education, makes him a highly sought-after resource for new and seasoned investors alike.

Through his YouTube channel, Oklahoma Real Estate Investment, Pryor offers weekly insights on real estate trends, risk mitigation, financing strategies, and more — all tailored to those interested in building wealth the smart, sustainable way.

Education-First Approach

Unlike many firms that focus purely on transactions, The Virtual Real Estate Team prioritizes education. The new website features articles, guides, and FAQs that walk investors through every step of the turnkey process. This approach helps demystify real estate investment and empowers users to make informed decisions aligned with their goals.

“We’re not just selling properties — we’re building relationships and long-term strategies,” said Pryor. “The website reflects our belief that educated investors are successful investors.”

A Personalized Investment Experience

VRET is not a one-size-fits-all operation. Every investor has unique financial goals, risk tolerance, and timelines. That’s why the team begins every engagement with a personalized strategy session. Prospective clients can book a free 30-minute call directly through the website.

During the call, investors are walked through VRET’s process, learn about available opportunities, and receive guidance on how to begin building a portfolio of turnkey properties that meet their personal criteria.

Serving Investors Nationwide

While based in Oklahoma City, The Virtual Real Estate Team serves clients across the United States. Their model is designed to support out-of-state investors, military families, retirees, and anyone interested in generating stable, long-term income through real estate without being tied to the property’s location.

Through a vetted network of property managers, contractors, and financing partners, VRET ensures that every transaction is smooth, every property is managed professionally, and every investor is kept informed without being overwhelmed.

A New Chapter of Growth

The launch of the new website marks a significant milestone in the company’s growth strategy. It reflects not just a brand refresh, but a commitment to serving the next generation of real estate investors — those who value time freedom, passive income, and expert guidance.

“This isn’t just a website — it’s the digital front door to a smarter way of investing,” said Pryor. “We invite anyone curious about passive real estate income to explore our site, watch our videos, and schedule a call. We’re ready to help them take the next step.”
