DRAPER, UT, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned sculptor Sabin Howard today announced the publication of his open letter addressing the importance of protecting artistic intellectual property in connection with his latest monumental project, the Grand Liberty Arch. Envisioned as a national symbol of hope, resilience, and liberty, the Arch has been conceived to inspire communities across America and stand as a beacon for generations to come.

The Grand Liberty Arch will be an epic destination monument celebrating our nation and people.”

The Grand Liberty Arch was conceived and developed by Sabin Howard Sculpture LLC and has been actively promoted since November 2024 through the project's websites—americanculturalrenaissance.com (<http://americanculturalrenaissance.com/>) and grandlibertyarch.com (<http://grandlibertyarch.com/>)—as well as through professional presentations to sponsors beginning in February 2024. Copyright for the Arch and related creative works has been formally filed with the U.S. Copyright Office, securing exclusive protections.

In his statement, Howard emphasized the dual role of the project as both a cultural symbol and a legal responsibility. “The Grand Liberty Arch is more than a work of art—it is an invitation for communities to unite around the ideals that shape our shared story,” said Howard. “With that purpose comes the responsibility to honor and protect the intellectual property that makes such a vision possible. Appropriation of this work without authorization infringes upon those rights, which are essential safeguards for all artists."

Howard underscored that protecting an artist's intellectual property is not merely a legal principle but also an act of respect. "When communities uphold these protections, they foster a culture of integrity and inspiration in the arts. I remain committed to advancing the Grand Liberty Arch with authenticity and vision, and I invite the public to join in celebrating a project that embodies our greatest ideals and freedoms."
