BENGHAZI, LIBYA, September 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- What made the second edition of Libya Build Benghazi in 2024 a success?

It concluded with outstanding achievements, drawing thousands of industry professionals and cementing its role as the foremost event in Libya's building and construction sector. Last year's gathering showcased innovative solutions, fostered key partnerships, and drove forward Libya's infrastructure development. Building on this momentum, when is the next Libya Build Benghazi? The third edition is scheduled from April 20-23, 2026, at the newly established Benghazi Exhibition and Conference Centre, a premier venue uniting North Africa's dynamic construction markets for collaboration and growth.

Why attend Libya Build Benghazi?

As Libya's leading international exhibition for the building and construction industry, it has evolved into an essential platform for stakeholders. The event highlights the sector's critical role in Libya's economic revival, urban transformation, and sustainable development. In 2024, participants engaged in discussions on sustainable building practices, advanced materials, and region-specific infrastructure projects. Networking opportunities connected local businesses with international experts, promoting knowledge exchange and innovation.

What to expect at Libya Build Benghazi 2026? The edition is set to surpass previous records with:

- Over 30,000 square meters of exhibition space for immersive displays.
- More than 300 exhibitors from global and regional markets.
- Over 1,000 cutting-edge products and services, including building materials, construction equipment, architectural designs, and project management tools.
- An expected attendance of over 20,000 visitors, such as architects, engineers, contractors, investors, and government representatives.

How does this align with Libya's economic goals? The event is timely amid Libya's heavy investments in infrastructure for economic diversification and recovery.
