Maxwell Leadership Institute (MLI), founded by Doctoral Candidate Kenneth- Maxwell Nance, a global leadership education and research institute since 2018, aims to help make leadership the best that it can be in our lifetime. The institute researches, analyzes, and reports on the phenomenon of leadership from a psychological and or social science underpinning for social change and human progress.

An ongoing effort at the Maxwell Leadership Institute is the exploration and study of the leadership failure phenomenon. As observed throughout the world, leadership, as it is commonly understood, experiences degradation, harm, and failure with increasing risks to people. Most importantly, the same contributes to the loss of blood, treasure, and the right living of people globally. There are billions of dollars spent on management and leadership interventions in America, of the tens of billions spent globally. However, leadership failures are many and far-reaching.

Maxwell Leadership Institute's mission is to help make leadership the best that it can be in our lifetime using numerous strategies including using the most rigorous, valid, credible, trustworthy, and quality research possible using the best possible methods, define leadership and co-create the best development methods for leaders globally, continue to inspire and influence the best evidence-based leadership practice globally, among others.

Currently the company is in a nation that has the first and fourth highest suicide rates in the world, according to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and the World Health Organization (WHO), respectively. Throughout the tenure of this business, MLI has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for its accomplishments. This year, they will be honored at IAOTB's annual awards gala at the magnificent Bellagio Hotel in Las Vegas in December for the selection of Top Global Business of the Year.

The President of the International Association of Top Businesses (IAOTB), Stephanie Ciriaco, stated: "Choosing Maxwell Leadership Institute for this honor was an easy decision for our panel to make. Mr. Nance is inspirational, influential, and a true visionary and thought leader. We cannot wait to see him and celebrate his business's accomplishments at next year's gala."

Looking back, Kenneth-Maxwell Nance attributes his success to his perseverance, work ethic, and the mentors he has had along the way. When not working, he enjoys traveling and spending time with his family. In the future, he hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
