

One Night Only: International Recording Artist Freke Umoh Brings 'Sound from Heaven' to Delaware, Oct. 3

From Nigeria to Delaware, Freke Umoh has inspired millions. Now he brings his powerful voice and message of hope to Victory Christian Fellowship.

NEW CASTLE, DE, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Victory Christian Fellowship is playing host to a powerful, one-night-only concert with worship leader and internationally acclaimed Nigerian recording artist Freke Umoh! This free event, Sound from Heaven, takes place Friday, October 3, at 7:00 p.m. at Victory Christian Fellowship in New Castle, Delaware.

This highly anticipated evening of music and ministry promises to be an unforgettable experience. With a career spanning more than two decades, not only has Freke led worship for audiences worldwide, but he's also recorded five albums and is best known for his global anthem "Hallelujah No Go Finish," which has garnered millions of streams on all digital platforms, including Spotify, iTunes, Apple, and Amazon Music, as well as YouTube. His songs inspire believers across Africa and beyond.

"The whole idea is that being in one accord leads to divine encounters. God always moves when there is unity in our worship," Freke says, explaining the inspiration behind the event's name, drawn from Acts 2:2.

Originally from Nigeria, Freke has made Delaware his home for the past four and a half years, Pastor Freke Umoh is an associate pastor and worship leader at Victory Christian Fellowship in Delaware.

serving as Associate Pastor and Worship Director at Victory Christian Fellowship. Alongside his international music career, he has committed himself to serving local communities through music, mentorship, and faith-based charitable initiatives.
