The Growing Complexity of Payroll Systems

For many firms, managing payroll internally has become more difficult. Owners and financial leaders are increasingly working with a reputable payroll company for small business operations in order to tackle growing inefficiencies and compliance issues. Internal teams are nevertheless faced with a number of typical issues. Payroll inconsistencies can result from hybrid and hourly workers' miscalculated work hours. Staff misclassification may result in legal repercussions and regulatory fines. Employee morale may suffer as a direct result of delayed payments caused by unreliable payroll systems. Compatibility issues with current HR and financial software can make the process even more difficult.
