"This auction brings together entertainment, sports, beauty, and lifestyle experiences that not only excite fans, but also save lives," said Adee Shepen, JED's Chief Growth Officer. "We're grateful to our partners and bidders for helping us raise critical funds during Suicide Prevention Awareness Month."

Every bid directly supports JED's work to ensure young people have the mental health resources they need, when they need them. Suicide is the second leading cause of death for 12-to 24-year-olds, and too many teens and young adults struggle in silence with suicidal thoughts or behaviors. Funds raised through this auction will help JED continue building programs, resources, and partnerships to protect youth emotional well-being and prevent suicide.
