

Another Patent Granted: Patent Services USA Celebrates Success for Dual Phone Case Invention

Texas inventor secures a utility patent for his Dual Phone Case with help from Patent Services USA, proving patent success is possible for first-timers.

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Patent Services USA is proud to announce another successful patent issuance, this time for a uniquely practical invention: the Dual Phone Case (with or without Holster). Designed to solve a common problem among busy professionals who manage two smartphones, the product has officially received a U.S. utility patent, thanks in part to Patent Services USA's full-service support from idea to protection.

This milestone underscores the company's ongoing commitment to offering affordable patent services in the USA to first-time inventors, entrepreneurs, and working-class creators.

Innovation That Solves Real Problems

Developed by Mr. Carter, a Texas-based professional and first-time inventor, the Dual Phone Case lets users carry and protect two smartphones in one compact accessory securely. From truck drivers to healthcare workers to small business owners, this invention provides a streamlined solution for people managing both work and personal devices every day.
