TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- World War 2 was a time of chaos and the disruption of ordinary life. A time when the world was thrown into turmoil. "The Wound closest to the Sun Novel" by Karl Berger

Based on his upbringing after World War II and the effects it had in his home country, Karl Berger uses history to give readers an emotionally charged experience of memory and regrets as they learn what haunts Yan's life. From his friendship with a soldier years leading to the war, to the struggles during an occupied France, and to how it stays with him in the years after, Karl Berger leads readers through a journey of man's choices and how it haunts and redeems him.
