MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Luminar Media Group, Inc. (OTCID: LRGR) ("Luminar" or the "Company"), through its Fortun family of subsidiaries (collectively, "Fortun"), today announced that it has retained Turner, Stone & Company, LLP ("Turner Stone") as its independent auditing firm. Turner Stone is widely recognized for its expertise in providing comprehensive audit, tax, and advisory services to public companies.

The engagement of Turner Stone reflects Luminar's commitment to maintaining the highest standards of financial integrity, transparency, and compliance as the Company continues to execute on its growth strategy.

"We are pleased to welcome Turner, Stone & Company as our independent auditor," said Yoel Damas, Chairman of the Board of Luminar Media Group. "As we prepare for the next phase of our growth—including uplisting initiatives—our choice of auditor underscores our dedication to best practices, accurate reporting, and building long-term shareholder trust."

Turner Stone brings decades of experience as a PCAOB-registered firm with a strong track record serving growth-oriented companies. Their client-focused approach, combined with deep technical expertise, will provide Luminar with robust support as the Company advances its operational and capital markets objectives.

Luminar remains focused on scaling its Fortun subsidiaries which provide revenue-based financing solutions to small and medium-sized businesses across the United States and Puerto Rico. The appointment of Turner Stone as auditors is a strategic milestone in Luminar's long-term vision of becoming a leading force in alternative finance and fintech innovation.
