The Story Behind Bouchard Design Collective

For Mallory Bouchard, design began as a fascination sparked in childhood, inspired by her grandfather's blueprints as a developer and builder. That early exposure evolved into a lifelong passion for creating interiors that merge beauty and functionality while transforming the way people experience their environments.

“What truly inspired me to pursue this career was witnessing firsthand how intentional design choices – from the selection of organic materials to the integration of biophilic elements – can create environments that genuinely enhance people's daily lives,” reflected Mallory. “Whether it's a family gathering in a thoughtfully designed living space or guests feeling welcomed in a boutique hospitality setting, design has this incredible power to shape moments and memories.”

At Bouchard Design Collective, authenticity is paramount. Every detail, from material and color palettes to furniture arrangements, is thoughtfully curated to reflect the identity, values, and aspirations of clients. By prioritising these narratives, the studio ensures each space is not just aesthetically refined but also meaningful, lasting, and deeply personal.

The Evaluation Process

Entries at the London Design Awards were judged by an international panel of design experts and industry leaders. All submissions underwent a blind evaluation, based on innovation, aesthetic value, functionality, sustainability, and overall impact, ensuring each recognition, including Bouchard Design Collective's achievement, was awarded purely on merit.
