

Jacksonville Dental Assistant School Welcomes Fall Students After Summer Opening

Just months after welcoming its first class, the school is now preparing to launch its next 12-week dental assistant program this fall.

JACKSONVILLE, NC, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jacksonville Dental Assistant School proudly opened its doors in June 2025, bringing a new pathway to the dental field for aspiring professionals in Jacksonville, North Carolina. Just months after welcoming its first class, the school is now preparing to launch its next 12-week dental assistant program this fall.

Conveniently located at 3745 Henderson Dr, Jacksonville, NC 28546, the school equips students with the skills and certification needed to enter the dental field. The program blends classroom learning with in-person, hands-on training in a real dental office, ensuring graduates are prepared to work alongside other dental professionals from day one.

"Our program has already made an impact in the Jacksonville community by helping students begin their journey toward a career in the dental field," said Nancy West, Program Manager of Jacksonville Dental Assistant School. "We're excited to expand that opportunity with our September course, allowing even more students to pursue a rewarding career while graduating debt-free."

Students in the Jacksonville program participate in on-site labs at a local partner dental clinic and complete an 80-hour externship under the guidance of experienced professionals. The curriculum covers essential topics such as dental anatomy, radiography, office sterilization, digital charting, and administrative skills like billing, coding, and patient record management.

To make career training accessible, Jacksonville Dental Assistant School provides flexible tuition payment options. Students can pay in full, choose from a variety of payment plans, or work with the school to create a custom plan that fits their budget.

"We're thrilled with the success of our June launch and look forward to welcoming a new class this September," said Chris Lofton, Chief Executive Officer at Zollege. "Our mission is to remove traditional education barriers while empowering students with hands-on training that prepares them for success in their community."

Graduates of Jacksonville Dental Assistant School are eligible to pursue employment at dental clinics across the region, equipped with practical, industry-ready skills.

About Zollege

Zollege was founded in 2010 by Dr. Ince, a dentist who found it difficult to find properly trained dental assistants to hire. Since then, Zollege has grown to operate 140 campuses across the United States, in partnership with local doctors and dentists. Each year, they help 6,000 students graduate debt-free and find success in dental and medical assistant careers.
