Amplified™

Rooted in a shared mission to build stronger communities through education and leadership, this collaboration will provide nonprofit professionals with access to Bisk Amplified, a training and upskilling platform that offers access to top-tier online courses and certificate programs from renowned institutions such as:

- Michigan State University
- Emory University & Emory Executive Education (Goizueta Business School)
- Southern Methodist University
- Kelley School of Business Executive Education Programs

“Strong nonprofits are built by strong leaders,” said Charlie Imbergamo, CEO of the Nonprofit Leadership Center. “By partnering with Bisk Amplified, we’re opening doors to world-class learning that will equip nonprofit professionals with the skills and confidence to lead boldly, innovate fearlessly, and create lasting change in our communities.”

Through this initiative, nonprofit leaders, staff, and board members can strengthen essential skills in leadership, management, financial strategy, and organizational effectiveness. The flexible, online platform of BiskAmplified.com allows learners to grow at their own pace while earning professional credentials that elevate both individual careers and nonprofit missions.

“Bisk Amplified is thrilled to support the Nonprofit Leadership Center’s work to advance the nonprofit sector,” said Dr. Jennifer King, Senior Vice President of Workforce and Education at Bisk. “By making top-tier university programs more accessible, we’re investing in the changemakers who are driving meaningful impact across Tampa Bay and beyond.”

This partnership represents a commitment to equity in education and a vision for a future where every nonprofit has the resources and leadership it needs to thrive.
