

James Hardie™ Pro Football Hall of Fame Invitational Donates $630,000 to Charities

Recipients Include Boca Raton Regional Hospital, Habitat for Humanity, First Tee, Pro Football Hall of Fame & Nicklaus Children's Charities

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES,
September 16, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The James Hardie™ Pro Football Hall of Fame Invitational today announced a record $630,000 in charitable contributions generated from its inaugural 2025 tournament, delivering transformative support to health, youth development, housing, and community organizations across South Florida and beyond. Major beneficiaries include Boca Raton Regional Hospital, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Palm Beach County, First Tee – Florida Gold Coast, Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Nicklaus Children's Health Care Charities.

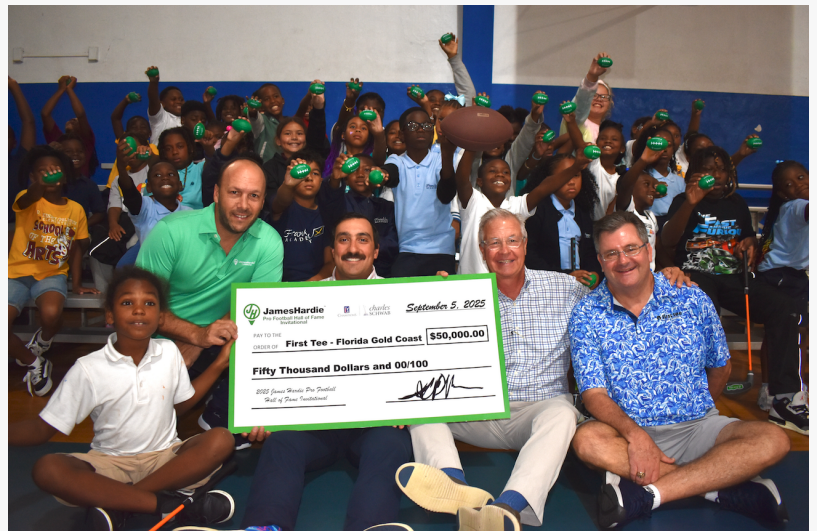

Additional gifts were made to local programs such as Keiser University, Folds of Honor, Lou Groza Scholarship Fund, ForeKids, St. Rocco's Church, Navy SEAL Foundation, and Marine Corps Community Service.

To highlight this impact, the tournament will host a check presentation to Boca Raton Regional Hospital on Thursday, September 18, 2025, recognizing the hospital as the event's leading beneficiary and celebrating the generosity of tournament supporters.

"From day one, we set out to build a best-in-class event that blends PGA TOUR Champions golf with the spirit of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and to celebrate South Florida through meaningful local impact," said Ken Kennerly, Executive Director of the James Hardie™ Pro

Football Hall of Fame Invitational. "Thanks to our fans, partners, volunteers, and the philanthropic leadership of our community, year one delivered in a big way. We're deepening our commitment to South Florida, and year two will raise the bar even higher."

"We are profoundly grateful for the generous support of the James Hardie Pro Football Hall of Fame Invitational, a local PGA TOUR Champions event," said Lincoln Mendez, North Region Executive, Baptist Health South Florida and CEO, Boca Raton Regional Hospital. "This event not only brings national attention to the exceptional work being done at Boca Raton Regional Hospital but also helps expand the reach of our Christine E. Lynn Women's Health and Wellness Institute. Through these contributions, we are able to provide greater access to advanced diagnostic and preventive care in cancer, pelvic health, heart health, pre- and post-partum services, and primary care. This support is making a lasting difference in the lives of our patients and the health of our community."
