

G2Mint Announces Partnership with Loadsure, Delivering Embedded Cargo Insurance as a Plugin

Loadsure's services available as a plugin integration for G2Mint customers, enabling users to access real-time cargo coverage embedded in their TMS workflows

By embedding our platform within G2Mint's Miles solution, customers save time, reduce manual effort, and make smarter, safer, and more efficient decisions for their business”

Johnny McCord, CEO and Founder of Loadsure

HUDSON, MA, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- G2Mint, an innovative provider of AI-powered logistics technology, is excited to announce its partnership with Loadsure, the insurtech leader in dynamic cargo insurance coverage for shippers, freight brokers, insurance agents, and motor carriers. As part of this collaboration, Loadsure's services will be made available as a plugin integration for G2Mint customers subscribed to its platform—enabling users to access real-time cargo coverage embedded directly within their TMS workflows.

This new plugin connects G2Mint's Miles solution with Loadsure's fully automated insurance platform. Miles is an AI-powered Rate Engine that is mode agnostic and can rate any supply chain agreement. Miles is equipped with connectors to integrate data & plugins, and a fully integrated broker & shipper TMS. The result is an embedded experience that simplifies risk management, accelerates claims processing, and ensures shipments are protected with just a few clicks.

“We're pleased to partner with Loadsure to offer their advanced cargo insurance platform as a Miles plugin,” said Dan Clark, Founder and CEO of G2Mint. “This integration gives our customers access to real-time, automated coverage directly inside their workflows, making shipment protection more efficient and accessible than ever.”

“Partnering with G2Mint brings Loadsure's automated, data-powered cargo insurance directly into shippers', brokers', and carriers' workflows,” said Johnny McCord, CEO and Founder of Loadsure. “This integration simplifies risk management, accelerates claims, and protects every shipment with speed and confidence. By embedding our platform within G2Mint's Miles solution, customers save time, reduce manual effort, and make smarter, safer, and more efficient decisions for their business.”
