

Locally Owned Remodeler Expands Trusted Home Services Across Iowa

With 23+ years of experience, Clear Choice Exteriors offers expert remodeling services in Iowa—windows, doors, roofing, baths, siding, and more.

URBANDALE, IA, UNITED STATES,
October 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

A long-established, family-operated remodeling company continues to expand its reach, delivering comprehensive services that reflect its commitment to both quality and community. Founded by Iowa native

Rob Nevitt and operated with his son Kyle, the business represents more than 23 years of expertise in residential and commercial improvement.

The company offers a full spectrum of remodeling solutions, including window replacement, doors, roofing, siding, bath renovations, & storm damage restoration. Every service is designed to enhance energy efficiency, structural durability, and long-term property value while meeting the distinct needs of each client.

Nevitt's lifelong ties to Perry, IA, and his family's active involvement in the business provide a foundation for trust and accountability. Customers benefit from competitive, upfront pricing without inflated costs or promotional gimmicks, as well as the assurance that each project will be handled with care.

"Our family has always believed that strong relationships are built on honest information and quality results," said Nevitt. "That is the promise we extend to every homeowner who chooses us for their remodeling needs."
