For Michelle, becoming a best-selling author is the fulfillment of a dream. "I am so excited to be part of a best-selling book," she shares. "This opportunity has been amazing, and being an author has always been a dream of mine."

Michelle's story is a beacon for future nurse leaders. Through her DON Success Network, she has created a safe, supportive community for Directors of Nursing and aspiring leaders in long-term care. The network helps members grow emotionally, spiritually, professionally, financially, and personally, empowering them to become the CEOs of their nursing departments.

"My journey as a young mother who overcame obstacles to become a Director of Nursing and Leadership Coach will impact our future nurse leaders," Michelle says. "The DON Success Network is designed to help them thrive as whole leaders and create lasting impact in healthcare.”

Her advice for women who want to become EmpowerHER is rooted in faith: “Trust in God and trust the journey he has placed you on. It may seem hard, and it may feel like you will never catch a break, but you will. You are empowered to overcome and destined to succeed.”
