Senn Visciano Canges P.C. is widely regarded for its premier real estate practice, led by founder Mark Senn, author of the authoritative “Commercial Real Estate Transactions Handbook” on real estate and leasing issues. The firm has also built highly respected practices in business law, construction law, and litigation, reinforcing its reputation as a leading Colorado law firm.

Fortis Law Partners LLC has extensive expertise in employment law and high-stakes litigation, including winning some of the largest civil theft judgments in Colorado for three consecutive years. The Denver Business Journal awarded the firm a win in the medium-size business category of its Small Business Awards and also named it one of Colorado's fastest-growing private companies for two consecutive years.

Together, the combined firms offer clients expanded capabilities, sophisticated expertise, strategic insight, and personalized attention. Built on shared values of exceptional quality, relentless client service, and a collaborative, business-minded approach, the combination builds
