EINPresswire.com/ -- blueBriX is proud to announce a landmark multi-million-dollar, long-term agreement with Hospital Metropolitano (HM), one of Costa Rica's largest and most trusted private healthcare networks. Structured as a five-year partnership with an automatic renewal option, the contract underscores HM's confidence in blueBriX's healthcare technology solutions and marks a significant milestone in strengthening the company's global footprint.

Commenting on the announcement, Shameem C Hameed, CEO of blueBriX, said: “Our partnership with Hospital Metropolitano is more than a contract—it is a commitment to the future of healthcare. HM has been a pioneer in expanding affordable, quality care through Medismart, and we are honored to be their technology partner. Together, we are laying the foundation for sustainable, patient-centered innovation that can grow at the same pace as HM.”
