

Local Author's Pet Loss Book Hits #1 on Amazon — A Gentle Companion for Dog Owners in Grief

#1 Amazon best seller offering comfort, reflections, and journaling prompts for dog owners grieving a beloved companion.

SAINT LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- "Always Here — When a Dog Dies" offers comfort, reflections, and AI journaling guidance for those mourning their four-legged family members

Jesse Kuhn, a Certified Grief Educator and father of three, has released Always Here: When a Dog Dies, the newest title in his Always Here grief companion series. The book quickly rose to #1 in multiple Amazon categories last week and continues to hold the #1 New Release spot in Pet Loss.

Written for anyone grieving the death of a beloved dog, the book offers short reflections, compassionate prompts, and nervous-system-friendly design to help readers through one of life's most painful goodbyes. It also includes optional, human-centered AI journaling guidance as a private place to put words to grief that can be hard to share out loud.

St. Louis Author's Pet Loss Book Best Seller

"Losing a dog isn't 'just losing a pet,'" Kuhn says. "For many, it's losing a best friend and a member of the family. This book is meant to sit quietly with you in that ache and remind you that love never disappears — it just takes a new shape."

The Always Here series has quickly gained traction, beginning with Always Here: Death of a Spouse (already a #1 best seller in Health & Spirituality) and now expanding into other under-acknowledged forms of grief, including pet loss and disenfranchised grief.

About the Author

Jesse Kuhn is a writer, artist, and Certified Grief Educator exploring the sacred terrain of grief, healing, and the human heart. After losing his wife, he began writing as a form of survival — eventually creating the Always Here series as a set of gentle companions for unique types of loss. He is also the voice behind The Torchbearer's Voice podcast.
