

Real Pro Auto Announces Winter Safety Inspection Campaign

Real Pro Auto announces a winter safety inspection campaign to prepare vehicles in West Michigan for cold-weather driving conditions.

GRAND RAPIDS, MI, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Real Pro Auto Service, with locations in Grand Rapids, Wyoming, and Saranac, has launched a winter safety inspection campaign to help West Michigan drivers prepare their vehicles for colder months and challenging road conditions.

Preparing Vehicles for Winter Roads

The inspection campaign focuses on critical safety checks, including tire condition and tread depth, brake performance, battery health, antifreeze levels, windshield wipers, and heating systems. These elements are essential for ensuring vehicles remain dependable during ice, snow, and subzero temperatures.

Winter driving in Michigan can be unpredictable, and preparation is key to safety.”

John Stewart, Owner of Real Pro Auto

By identifying potential issues early, the campaign aims to reduce the risk of breakdowns and improve driver confidence when winter weather strikes.

A Word from the Owner

“Winter driving in Michigan can be unpredictable, and preparation is key to safety,” said John Stewart, Owner of Real Pro Auto.

Supporting Driver Safety in West Michigan

The campaign is part of Real Pro Auto's broader commitment to community safety and reliable vehicle maintenance. Technicians will be providing inspections tailored to seasonal needs, ensuring vehicles are equipped to handle snow, ice, and freezing temperatures effectively.
