

Augustus Wealth Featured in Kiplinger on Navigating Inherited Property Decisions

Augustus Wealth was featured in Kiplinger, providing expert guidance on how to approach the emotional and financial choices that come with inheriting a home.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Augustus Wealth, a leading financial planning firm providing services to professionals in Los Angeles, Orange County, and beyond, was recently featured in a Kiplinger article titled "Inherited a House? Here's How to Decide What to Do With It." The piece explores the financial and emotional decisions that often follow when someone inherits a family home, offering expert perspectives on whether to keep, rent, or sell.

Kiplinger is one of the most respected voices in personal finance, known for providing straightforward advice on wealth, retirement, and real estate. The inclusion of Augustus Wealth underscores the firm's thoughtful approach to guiding clients through both financial strategy and emotionally charged decisions.

"Being featured in Kiplinger is a meaningful moment for our firm," said Derek Munchow, CFP and Managing Partner at Augustus Wealth. "It's a chance to help people see that financial planning isn't only about spreadsheets, but also navigating deeply personal transitions with intention. That's exactly the kind of work we do every day."
