

Jackson Advisory Group Redefines Coaching for Home Service Owners with Trades-Focused Programs

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Home service business owners are often told they just need a little “business coaching.” But according to Dale Jackson, founder of Jackson Advisory Group, generic coaching doesn’t cut it for industries like HVAC, plumbing, landscaping, or pool service.

“Coaching the owner isn’t enough,” says Jackson, who built and exited multiple service companies before starting the advisory group. “In this industry, success depends on entire teams working together — techs, dispatchers, managers, and leadership. Our programs focus on aligning the whole company so everyone wins.”

Jackson Advisory Group works exclusively with owners of local service businesses generating more than $1 million in revenue. Many of these owners are ready to step back from daily operations but need systems, structure, and leadership in place before they can do so confidently.

What Makes Jackson Advisory Different

Unlike coaching programs that focus narrowly on sales or management, Jackson Advisory takes a comprehensive approach. The firm’s services include:

Peer Boards – Monthly roundtables that connect non-competing owners for accountability and community.

TeamSync Pro (DISC) – Personality-based team training to improve hiring, communication, and retention.

StratPro – Hands-on leadership development and strategic planning built for trades businesses.

FullTilt-120 – A 120-day sprint designed to reset operations, install systems, and create momentum.

By addressing hiring, communication, and leadership alongside sales and operations, Jackson Advisory ensures that service companies aren’t just growing — they’re scaling sustainably.

The Impact for Owners

Owners often arrive at Jackson Advisory burned out, overwhelmed, and convinced no one can do things as well as they can. Within weeks, many realize they can delegate — and their teams often handle the work better. "That's the shift," says Jackson. "When owners see their people step up, they stop doing everything themselves and finally get their business working for them."

Driving Clarity and Results

Jackson Advisory is already earning praise from clients across Texas and beyond. One recent success involved a service company struggling with stalled growth. After implementing leadership alignment and team training, the business streamlined operations and grew revenue without the owner working 80-hour weeks.

About Jackson Advisory Group

Founded by former service company operator Dale Jackson, Jackson Advisory Group helps local service businesses stop relying on owners to do it all. With peer boards, DISC team training, strategic planning, and focused 120-day resets, the group delivers hands-on solutions designed specifically for the trades.
