

Bushiroad Announces New Anime and Nationwide Live Tour for Virtual Band 'Mugendai Mewtype'

CA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bushiroad, a leading entertainment company, today announced the production of a new anime series titled BanG Dream! YUME∞MITA for its virtual band "Mugendai Mewtype," alongside a nationwide live tour.

Fans of the BanG Dream! project can look forward to the virtual band's anime debut, which will bring the characters to life in a whole new way. The anime will mark Mugendai Mewtype's first on-screen appearance, with further story details to be unveiled at a later date. More information about the series will be available on the project's official website.

In addition to the anime production, Bushiroad also announced a national live tour, Super Position, for Mugendai Mewtype. The virtual band will be performing in all 47 prefectures across Japan, bringing their music and energy to fans in a live setting. Audiences nationwide will be able to experience the energy and excitement of Mugendai Mewtype's performances in person. More information about the tour can be found on the official tour website.

Since its launch in 2015, the BanG Dream! franchise has gained a massive following worldwide, combining anime, music, and games. Mugendai Mewtype is the latest addition, already attracting attention with their debut single Dreaming Infinity, which surpassed one million views on Mugendai Mewtype's official YouTube channel.
