In 2025, InsiderWire gained national attention with a viral compilation video that showed multiple Democratic senators using nearly identical language in anti-Trump messages. The video, which surpassed one billion combined views, fueled debate over political messaging and was picked up by major networks such as ABC, Fox News, CBS, and Sky News, as well as shared by figures including Elon Musk, Tim Pool, and Charlie Kirk.

With the launch of its official website, insiderwire.com, the outlet says it will expand its reporting through in-depth articles and investigative pieces, signaling a move beyond its social media roots.
