

Olympian Leslie Kwok's REVA Social Wellness Redefines Recovery at TRIFECTA Orchard

Singapore's First Semi-Outdoor Contrast Therapy Club Blends Hot & Cold Therapy with Community Vibes

SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE, September 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recovery just got a bold, social twist. REVA Social Wellness, founded by Olympian Leslie Kwok (Sydney 2000), has launched as Singapore's first semi-outdoor contrast therapy club inside TRIFECTA on Orchard Road, the city's iconic surf, ski, and snow hub. With the largest mineralized hot and cold pools in Singapore and a Finnish sauna set to debut in October/November 2025, REVA is making wellness accessible, fun, and community-driven.

Located in the heart of Orchard Road, REVA offers a fresh take on recovery with its open-air, state-of-the-art pools featuring continuous overflow circulation and mineralized water for pristine clarity. The vibrant setting, paired with a social lounge, invites guests to connect while recharging. "REVA is about making recovery a lifestyle you love," said Kwok. "As an Olympian, I know how vital recovery is, but it shouldn't feel like work—it should be a joy." Explore more at www.revasocialwellness.com or <https://www.instagram.com/revasocialwellness/>

Unlike elite-only recovery centers, REVA welcomes everyone with soft launch drop-in rates starting at $28 nett (U.P. $48). "We're bringing athlete-grade contrast therapy to the everyday person," said Co-Founder Russell Ong, a former Singapore National Swimmer. "Whether you're a fitness enthusiast or just want to unwind, REVA's got you."

"Orchard Road is the perfect stage for this new wave of social wellness," added Co-Founder Lucy Chng, Marketing & Brand Director. "We've created a space where people can recover, connect, and feel their best—together."
