"Artificial Intelligence is transforming every aspect of our societies, and the governance choices we make today will define whether it strengthens or undermines democracy. Our partnership with Club de Madrid at UNGA80 reflects our shared commitment to ensuring AI is guided by trust, transparency, and democratic values," Sanjay Puri, President, RegulatingAI.

As governments, multilateral bodies, and private sector leaders increasingly confront the societal challenges of AI, this roundtable will serve as a platform for advancing concrete, democratic, and globally inclusive approaches to AI governance. The dialogue will focus not only on risks and safeguards, but also on the opportunities AI presents for strengthening institutions and driving sustainable development.
