

LiveKill Announces New Single, Video for 'Evil & Ecstasy'

LiveKill is pleased to announce the upcoming release of their latest single and video, "Evil & Ecstasy" out September 26, 2025

FL, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On September 26th, South Florida's heavy metal juggernaut LiveKill will release their blistering new single, "Evil & Ecstasy". Dark, atmospheric, and unflinchingly powerful, the track confronts the raw tension between light and darkness, channeling the struggles of life into an explosive sonic statement.

With haunting imagery mirrored in the single's artwork, "Evil & Ecstasy" challenges listeners to consider the weight of our choices in life while hinting at the truths that may only be revealed beyond it.

"Evil & Ecstasy" showcases LiveKill's commitment to delivering music that is as thought-provoking as it is crushing. The single embodies the band's vision of fusing heavy metal with modern production and songwriting, resulting in a sound that feels timeless yet unmistakably fresh.

For fans of metal's raw energy and those hungry for something new, "Evil & Ecstasy" is sure to be a defining moment in the band's journey.
