Tree lighting Upgrade for your Holiday Style

Ring Tree Lighting announced today its seasonal solution to stress-free Christmas tree lighting with a tariff-free offer designed to help families decorate beautifully and affordably this holiday season. The brand's trunk-mounted ring design eliminates tangles and time-consuming setup hassles. With this easy-to-use system, purchasers can upgrade their tree lighting in minutes. For the 2025 Holiday Season, Ring Tree Lighting is offering a 20% discount on their 240-LED set, now priced at $99 CAD, plus shipping.

As a newly single Mom, I was struggling to find the magic for my son, but first I had to untangle all of those lights! That's when I thought of the idea to invent Ring Tree Lighting.”

“I love to create an enchanting atmosphere at home,” says Founder and Inventor, Nancy von Hapke. “One Christmas as a newly single Mom, I was struggling to find the magic for my son, and I wanted to create a worry-free, effortless Christmas decorating experience, but first I had to untangle all of those lights! That’s when I realized that there had to be a better solution because this was so difficult, expensive and frustrating. The magic of Christmas is so amazing, but putting lights on a tree is not.” “With its innovative design and affordable pricing, we believe it will become an essential part of holiday traditions.” Says von Hapke.

For parents or caregivers balancing school pickups and early bedtimes. For grandparents welcoming their families home for the holidays. For singles with a packed holiday schedule. Ring Tree's system saves time and hassle. Bring back the magic and remove the mess—spend less time untangling, more time enjoying the glow together.

Highlights

Easy, quick setup: , layered depth that looks polished fast, and a compact, reusable storage box that tucks away neatly when the season ends.

Attaches to the tree trunk in minutes with an intuitive design that is both kid and senior-friendly, which will minimize frustration and speed up decorating.

Depth and mood: Layered lighting effects with custom colours or classic white create a warm, immersive look without extra strands or guesswork.

No tangling: A circular, trunk-glide format replaces loose strands, helping seasonal decorators avoid knots and clutter around the tree.

Space-saving storage: A durable, reusable canvas box keeps all 240 bulbs organized in a compact footprint that fits neatly into cabinets or drawers.

Cost-effective value: 240 bulbs deliver the equivalent of four 60-bulb boxes, helping households get a 'full-tree look' at a budget-friendly price point.

Timed ahead of peak holiday shopping, the brand's tariff-free positioning and 20% discount aim to counter rising costs and limited seasonal imports, giving families a reliable option that's
