We cannot do everything at once, but we can do something at once. Chuck Doyle is an action taker. He is making things happen.”

Dr. Ruben West, World Civility Ambassador

During the ceremony, World Civility Ambassador Dr. Ruben West from Illinois praised Doyle for his steadfast commitment to empowering individuals to reach their goals and succeed. He also commended Doyle for his humanitarian efforts, which have had a profoundly positive impact on communities worldwide. Doyle's dedication to promoting civility and kindness played a key role in his receiving the Honorary Doctor of Philosophy in Humanities from UGCSI.

UGCSI, founded in 1982, is a non-traditional educational institution operating in over 50 countries with more than 100,000 graduates. It is a worldwide institution that has established a new education system, recognizing the "Searchers" of new information, the creators of unique narratives, and those who have "added to existing knowledge" for the betterment of humanity.

The institution is accredited by the Worldwide Accreditation Commission of Christian Educational Institutions (WWAC).

Doyle expressed his gratitude for the honorary doctorate and thanked UGCSI for the recognition. He also shared his enthusiasm for the future and his ongoing commitment to helping others unlock their full potential. The event was a celebration of Doyle's achievements and a testament to his dedication to making a difference in the world.

UGCSI and Dr. Rivers are proud to honor "Coffee Cup Chuck" with an honorary doctorate and acknowledge his outstanding contributions to society. Doyle's passion for helping others and promoting civility serves as an inspiration to everyone. His honorary doctorate is a well-earned recognition of his hard work, dedication, and positive influence on the world.
