

Hairmax Celebrates 25 Years of Innovation in Hair Growth Technology

From the first FDA-cleared laser hair growth device to a global portfolio of devices and hair care, Hairmax continues to lead the laser hair growth industry.

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Hairmax International, LLC, the pioneer and global leader in laser hair growth technology, proudly celebrates its 25th anniversary. Founded in 2000, Hairmax transformed the way the world treats hair loss with the launch of the first FDA-cleared laser hair growth device for home use, a groundbreaking innovation so significant that it was recognized as one of TIME Magazine's Inventions of the Year.

Today, Hairmax delivers personalized, science-based hair growth treatments through a complete range of products, including LaserCombs, LaserBands, Laser Caps, and the newest Hairmax Lumina™ Laser Helmet.

"Twenty-five years ago, Hairmax changed the conversation about hair loss with the first at-home laser device proven to regrow hair," said Mike Nassar, President of Hairmax. "Since then, we have built a portfolio of solutions designed for every budget, lifestyle, and stage of hair loss. Our mission has always been to help hair loss sufferers regrow their hair safely, effectively, and feel confident again. As we celebrate this milestone, we remain focused on advancing innovation and redefining what's possible in hair restoration."

With 25 years of dedication, Hairmax has demonstrated unmatched clinical proof, supported by more published studies, FDA clearances, and international medical device licenses than any other brand.

We've built a portfolio of solutions for every budget, lifestyle, and stage of hair loss. It's our mission to help hair loss sufferers regrow hair safely, effectively, and feel confident again."
